

suppose he will be coming over here for some time will he? ^{Wm} A. cousin wrote me a while back and was still at home. I guess he considers himself lucky to be there. Papa how is your garden coming out by this time? I guess nearly everything is ready to eat is it not?

I sure wish I was there to show you how to raise good potatoes ha!

Papa you ought to be on a farm now, I bet first part missing

2 June 1918

some French soldiers
'Blue Devils' parachuted in
M. Y. city some time ago.
These soldiers are from this part of France and are noted for being such game fighters (and they are) Our boys when they first went into the trenches fought beside them, and they think a whole lot of the Amer. boys.

Will mama have you had many letter from Willie lately? - I don't the farmers are actually winning the money.

well the fellows are coming back now and making ready for bed, and must do the same too - sweet.

mama I have finished that #15 and will try and send it soon, if it gets by in the mail. The Frenchman has nearly crowded us out of this loft lately they have been filling it up with alfalfa. well mama I will say good bye for this time, tatus is blowing now.

Tell Pan, Edith and all the kids hello for me wishing you all the best and good luck many times

I remain your loving son George.

P.S. send some of those new pictures of K.C in your next letter.
